CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION

This is to certify that Mr. Sambhu Chakraborty -Director & NABL Accreditation Consultant from Institute of Applied Quality Management, Joyaboti Kolkata 700 061 is an energetic, dedicated and responsible professional personage; who have made us feel proud for successful completion of our diagnostic laboratory's accreditation process based on ISO-15189:2007.

He has meticulously & precisely coordinated us in every delicate matters with respect to accreditation and carried forward this herculean task with due completion thus enabling us to be in the list of National Accredited Clinical Laboratories under the prestigious NABL (a constituent board of Quality Council of India).

His guidance was indeed remarkable, outstanding & highly appreciable. He has carried out his concerned services in the diagnostic centre to the expected satisfaction of self as well as my team of Management. I am confident that under any circumstances, he has the capability & zeal to carry out his esteemed assigned works to the best possible output.

I wish him all success in all his endeavors.
